Tim Lydon

Roof Construction Observer

Tim has over 45 years of experience in roofing. He started as a roof mechanic, installing various roofing systems. As a roof foreman, Tim communicated the job plan and expectations to the crew then communicated progress to the project manager. Tim then became an Operations Manager and Director of Operations, negotiating contracts, managing multiple projects, overseeing schedules and operations, and developing cost estimates.

Tim joined Florida Consulting LLC in 2015, bringing a high level of practical roofing knowledge. He performs in house document reviews, roof assessments and observations during construction.
